

Trusts and Estates Associate

Berg Hill Greenleaf Ruscitti LLP, Boulder's largest local law firm, seeks a Trusts and Estates Associate with at least five years of experience working with high net worth clients for our Boulder office. This position requires experience drafting and implementing sophisticated trust planning strategies, estate and trust administration and a high level of client contact. The ideal candidate will hold a Colorado law license and will have strong fundamental skills within the trusts and estates practice area, including gift and estate tax planning and fiduciary tax. Strong academic credentials preferred. An advanced degree in taxation or estate planning is a plus. Superior client and interpersonal skills, ability to multi-task and prioritize, work in a team environment, and strong writing and analytical skills required. We offer a competitive salary and benefits package including paid parking and casual dress environment.

Submit resume and cover letter to Cathy A. Thorne, Director of Administration at cat@bhgrlaw.com. Berg Hill Greenleaf Ruscitti LLP is an equal opportunity employer that recognizes and values diversity as a part of our firm culture.